GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

Yesterday was a great time for the dog fanciers in and about Pittsburg. The dog show opened in the Grand Central Rink, and if all the succeeding days of the exhibition turn out as well as yesterday did the show will be a success. It deserves to be successful; many of Pittsburg's most prominent citizens are interested in it, and have spared neither time nor trouble to make the show a good one. Certainly there is a long list of famous dogs on exhibition, and it is needless to say that they are well worth seeing. Of course there is always something attractive at a dog show for all classes of people. It is interesting to note how the various classes of

PAUL GLADSTONE. canines attract the attention and admiration of particular classes of human beings. Doubtless the pointers and setters have more admirers than any of the other classes, because everybody who delights in going out with the gun, or who enjoy a day's SPORT IN THE FIELDS, has a taste for the kind of dogs named. Consequently the great majority of the large and present at the show yesterday made their way to the pointers and setters. there was something worth looking at, Both pointers and setters were well represented. The famous Paul Gladstone, the handsome black, white and tan English setter, of the Mount Washington kennels, was the cynosure of all eyes. Paul was in the champion class and was unopposed. He has quite a remarkable record, having been a good winner both in field trials and at all the leading bench shows. J. O'H. Denny's Brandon was also greatly admired. The bull terriers scanned closely by those who delight to see that class of terrors in the pit in hattle. There were some good terriers, without doubt. The greybounds, undoubtedly, were better this year than they have been in this city refore. The Hornell-Harmony kennels, of Covert, N. Y., carried off the honors with some excellent specimens of the greyhound class. Hazelburst, the winner of first prize for dogs, is really a well-formed black and white dog. The same kennels carried off first prize for greyhound bitches, with Harmony. It was a close contest between Harmony Phil, and Eckert's Kate. Mr. Eckert and his friends and Eckert's Rate. Mr. Eckert and his friends were exceedingly disappointed at the decision of the judge, Mr. Naylor. The Hornell-Har-mony kennels also captured first for grey-hound supples with a pretty little blue bitch named Fannie M.

THE NOBLE MASTIFF.

The mastiffs showed up well, the entries being large and the quality excellent. Mr. Charles C. Cook, of Canton, O., had some beauties there, and they were as majestic in their appearance as they were handsome. His fawn-colored dog Moses, by Champion Hford Cantion, was awarded first prize without much trouble. The dog is certainly a first-class one. Mr. Cook also took first prize for bitches and for pupples with his Hertha and April Queen, respectively. There was a little dissatisfaction regarding the contest for the rough coated St. Bernard dogs. The Keystone Keonel's Meiurad was awarded first prize. His hind legs are faulty and, although he has been exhibited six or seven times, he has failed to get near a prize until yesterday. Mr. Naylor placed him ahead of such good ones as Bernardo, Mont and Don Juan, all local dogs. It may be more correct to say that, al-Cook, of Canton, O., had some beauties there, dogs. It may be more correct to say that, although Don Juan, who is owned by John

Newell, was withdrawn from the contest and show as soon as it was discovered that Melurad was to have the blue ribbon. The Keystone Kennels did well, as they captured four or five

The fancy dogs that is those kent as pets. were rot so numerous as in former years, but the quality was good. The Irish setters are strong in numbers and of a high class. The beagles are also numerous, and Superintendent Kruger's kennel is a great attraction. There Kruger's kennel is a great attraction. There are some good fox terriers and spaniels. Major J. M. Taylor judged the pointers and setters, and Mr. Navier all the other dogs.

Prof. Parker's troupe of performing dogs is, indeed, a great attraction. They are wonderful and wise little and big animals. Altogether the show is certainly worthy of patronage. Following are the awards made yesterday:

Tri-State Baseball Magnates Get Down to

Work. PERSONAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CANTON, January 29 .- The new Tri-State League was organized here to-day, with Canton, Mansfield, Wheeling and Dayton as mem bers, and Springfield, Lima, Hamilton and Ft. Wayne promised, and Steubenville and East Liverpool ready to put in a club jointly if any of the four promised cities fail. President McDermitt, of Columbus, represented Dayton; W. T. English, Wheeling; M. D. Ward and C.

H. Voegele, Mansfield, and L. A. Loichot and Manager Harrington, Canton. The salary limit was reduced from $900 to $750 per month for each club, exclusive of the manper month for each club, exclusive of the man-ager, and this limit will, under no circum-stances, be exceeded. Big salaries killed the league last season, and the owners of the new clubs can see success only in a strict adherence to the new salary limit.

Mansfield wanted the millennium plan adopted, and failing in that threatened to drop adopted, and failing in that threatened to drop out unless the salary limit was fixed at the figure stated. Al Pratt, of Pittsburg, was at the meeting, and succeeded in having the Spalding ball adopted. The season will open May 5 and close September 10, and American Association rules will govern. Manager Harrington was deputized to visit Springfield, Lima, Hamilton and Ft. Wayne to assist those cities in joining the league.

The next league meeting will be held at Dayton at the call of the President. Canton has lo men under contract, and will sign about lamore, from which number a team will be selected after the aggregation has put in two weeks' practice here, just before the season onens.

LOOKS LIKE BRUSH. Indianapolis Authorities Thinks His Syndicate Will Get the Club.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. INDIANAPOLIS, January 29.-It is now regarded as certain that the Brush syndicate will get the League franchise—a result that has not been doubted by those who have given the matter any investigation. Dickson and Talbott have received a letter from Mr. Young saying that their application had been placed on file, and that the League had nothing to do with the disposal of the grand stand and grounds.

The firm at once wired back renewing their original offer with a modification of $1,000 less, original offer with a modification of $1,000 less, which amount will be necessary to purchase the ground rights from Mr. McCutcheon.

Since they have made a bonafide offer of $20,000 for the club, or enough to pay its debts, it will be interesting to know whether the League will dispose of it at a less price. Fifteen of the stockholders of the baseball organization have combined and will bring suit to establish their rights, they claiming that the directors had no right to surrender or otherwise dispose of the franchise, without first consulting them.

WILL TACKLE JACKSON.

Patsey Cardiff Matched to Fight Mc Auliffe's

Vanquisher. MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., January 29 .- Patsey Cardiff to-day signed articles of agreement to fight Peter Jackson, the colored pugilist of California in April. The fight will be to a finish, with small gloves, at the rooms of the Caliish, with small gloves, at the rooms of the Calfornia Athletic Club, San Francisco. The winner will receive $2,600 and the loser $500.

Under the articles the men are prohibited from engaging in any previous fight without permission of the club. Cardiff has gone into active training. He says a finish fight is his forte, and he expects to win.

RICHMOND, Va., January 29.—The members of the Detroit club, of the International Association, have been ordered to report here on April I for preliminary practice, and Manager Leadly has arranged to play the Cuban Giants in this city on April 9 and 10. It is very unlikely, however, that the games will be played, as a strong opposition to them has been developed, owing to the fact that the Cuban Giants are all colored. Manager Leadly has been acquainted with the feeling of the people on the subject, and, it is understood, has cancelled his contract with the Cuban Giants.

The Local Men Win.

Messrs. Joseph A. Huggins, of this city, and J. W. Rothwell, of Washington, Pa., have defeated Messys. Richardson and Jewell, of Lawrence, Mass., in the great rifle match. It was a "telegraph" contest, that is, the Eastern men shot on their own grounds, and the local con-testants shot at Washington. Richardson and Jewell each made 410; Huggins made 422, and Rothwell 401, the two last named winning by

HIS BOLD MANIFESTO.

Boulanger Issues an Address to the Voters of the Seine, Not OVERBURDENED WITH MODESTY. He Attacks the Government and Prophesies Its Downfall.

MINISTER FLOQUET HOPES AND FEARS. Sermany Still Firmly Holds to the Bellef That a War Will Result.

General Boulanger has written a letter thanking the voters of Paris for their support. He charges the Government with arbitrary acts, and predicts that it will soon be retired from power. He closes with "Vive la Republique." Floquet will make an effort to stem the tide of popular feeling. It is believed he will fail. German papers see trouble ahead. PARIS, January 29.-General Boulanger as issued a letter thanking the electors of the Department of the Seine. He says :

I am still under the influence of the deer emotion caused by the marvelous demonstration of Sunday. I do not wish to postpone the expression of my gratitude to the admirable dation which marched so bravely in serried ranks against a parliamentary coalition composed of those who appeal so audaciously to the Republic, which their faults, their impotence and their intrigues have so gravely compromised. Never under any regimen was an official campaign of infamous attacks, premedtated calumnies and odious menaces more scandalously conducted against a candidate. Ballot in hand, you brushed away at one sweep standers and slanderers alike.

The National Republican party, based upon the probity of its officers, sincerity and universal suffrage, is henceforward to be the oundation of the Chamber which has fought against it with unprecedented fury. The Chamber now has nothing before it but dissolution, from which it will not escape. It is to you electors, to your energy and to your good ense, that our great country will owe deliverance from the parasites which devour while they dishonor her. The Republic is now free to all Frenchmen of good will. May they enter it and others leave it. Vive la France! Vive la Republique!

THE PARTY IN POWER. The various sections of the Republican party held meetings to-day. The Extreme Left decided to support the proper re-estab-lishment of the Scrutin d'Arrondisse on the jury, and Foreman O'Neil comment." A number of Deputies of this party advocate a general election as speedily as possible. The Union of the Left desire that M. Jouvencil's interpolation on Thursday shall precede the introduction of the "Scrutin d'Arrondissement" bill. The Radical Left is unanimously in favor of maintaining the present Cabinet in power.

Premier Floquet urges his colleagues to ssent to a measure modifying the press laws, especially relating to placards and colportage. Apropos of Boulanger's proclamations hostile papers assert that their real author is the journalist Pierre Denis, a sometime leader on the Cri Du Peuple, rho is now a contributor to La Presse, and who has been successively editor of Socialist, Moderate Republican and Bonapartist organs.

FEARS FOR FLOQUET.

Moderates doubt Premier Floquet's ability to pull through the crisis. Monarchist papers insist upon the necessity of his immediately announcing a policy, quoting the famous phrase Gambetta applied to Mac-Mahon, "Il faut se soumettre ou se demettre.

When M. Jouvencil interpellates the Govintends to adopt, and introduce a bill for the re-establishment of the Scrutiu d'Arrondissment system of election. This course was decided upon at a meeting of the Cabinet to-day.

GERMANY FEARS WAR.

The Election of Boulanger Continues to Cause Great Uneasiness.

BERLIN, January 29 .- The election of General Boulanger continues to be the theme of consented to his attorney, Joseph Furlong, earnest discussion. The feeling in official to accept a ten year term in the penitentiary circles over the election is less pessimistic for his crimes.
"Ten years?" asked Judge Normile, hestthan that of the press. If the predictions of the newspapers are fulfilled Europe will be in arms within a few months. On the Bourse yesterday prices strengthened on the assumption that the election disclosed such demoralization in France as would prevent a war for a long time to come. To-day, however, business showed that the feeling of confidence had

CULLOM ON CANADA.

The Illinois Senator Wants to Take in the Dominion-Pencetul Means Only to be Used - He Thanks the Legislature for His Unanimous Re-Election. CHICAGO, January 29 .- An exceptional ceasion, of which United States Senator Shelby M. Culloni was to-day the central figure, was made still more notable by an address from him, which, in a part at least, will doubtless be the subject of more than national attention. The two houses of the Illinois Legislature had met in joint session in honor of Mr. Cullom's presence and to afford him an opportunity to express himself regarding the unanimity with which he had been re-elected to the Federal Senate. Mr. Cullom thanked the members fittingly and then gave vent to some thoughts which round after round of applause. Senator Cullom said:

Senator Cullom said:

GENTLEMEN—There are many questions of public interest to this country giving scope to the largest extent of statesmanship and the highest powers of mind, which interest all the people, and about which there should be no partisan feeling. I have been for some time interested in the question of what relation the Government of the United States and the country lying north of it should bear to each other, and a committee of the Senate of which I have the honor to be Chairman has recently been instructed to investigate the commercial relations existing between the Government of the United States and the Government of Canada, and their people. United States and the Government of Canada, and their people.

As we all know, there have been questions connected with our relations with that Government that have been constantly annoying and a constant source of trouble. That is true with reference to our railroad connections between our people and those on the other side of the line. I expect a committee with which I am connected to investigate that subject during the summer, if we are not kept in continual

ine. I expect a committee with which I am connected to investigate that subject during the summer, if we are not kept in continual session at Washington. I am not going to discuss it now. I simply desire to intimate that my feeling is that the people of the United States should so control affairs that eventually—not with war, not with violence—a policy will be adopted that will result in the end in planting the American flag upon the Canada soil. While to-day there is not much inclination to bring together the United States and Canada, yet, in my opinion, it will only be a very tew years before we will find the means whereby we will be all one country.

I want to say to you, gentlemen, that while I belong to the Republican party and expect to do so as long as it is true to liberty and true to the rights of the people, I recognize the fact that I am the representative in the Senate of the United States of the people, whether Republicans, Democrats, or whatever they may be.

He has been plained to Judge Lippincott. When he appeared in the jury room yesterday, the judges sent a constable for him, and he was arraigned in court. 'Campbell," said the Judge, "you are continually drunk, and you are bringing disgrace on the grand jury system and the administration of justice in this court. For its own protection the Court feels that its duty is to discharge you in disgrace from the jury and send you home in charge of a con-

ASSAULTED HIS ATTORNEY.

Five Years. St. Louis, January 29 - There was sensational scene in Judge Normil'es court to-day. Ed. Kelly, alias Slattery, charged with highway robbery, and a desperate character, who has served time, had just Kelly, seeing what was coming, nerved himself like a python about to coil itself about some animal it meant to crush and the next moment Furlong saw stars as he reeled backward, stunned by a powerful blow delivered over his left eye by the desperado. His mouth was hurt, too, by the prisoner's thumb. Mr. Furlong was picked up and taken to a washroom to bathe his head, blood trickling from his whiskers meanwhile.

The sentence was imposed, and the prisoner went back to the jail, to be brought again later for robbing an Olive street car conductor named Pat Cullen of all his fares and his watch. This charge would have been passed generally but for his assault on Furlong. Judge Normile made the sentence 15 years, so it cost Kelly just five years to strike his attorney.

BISMARCK ON SAMOA.

Official Correspondence Between the Chancellor and Bayard.

AMERICA ENTIRELY TO BLAME.

According to the Lengthy Complaint of the German Leader.

THE SECRETARY ANSWERS WARMLY. Responsibility on the Other Side of the Ocean.

The letters passing between Bismarck and Bayard in relation to Samoa are now made public. Germany charges that for seven years the United States Consuls have been making trouble in the islands. The German interests are asserted to be more important than the American. The Secretary of State refutes all of these allegations. He charges the German Government with bad taith in violating an agreement. BALTIMORE, January 29 .- The Baltimore Sun will to-morrow print the following special dispatch from Washington: Of the various documents transmitted by the President to Congress explaining the course of the Department of State in the Samoan complications, the letter of Prince Bismarck to Baron Von Sedwitz, of the German Legation at Washington, in November, 1887, and the reply of Secretary Bayard through Minister Pendleton in January, 1888, are perhaps the most interesting, as presenting in a clear and interesting way the respective claims and contentions of Germany and the United States. In his letter to Baron Von Sedwitz, Prince Bismarck says: You have already been instructed on a former occasion to draw the attention of the Secretary occasion to draw the attention of the Secretary of State, Mr. Bayard, to the anti-German attitude observed by the American Consul General at Apia, Mr. Sewall, during our action against the Samoan King Maleitoa. We have had a similar experience with the predecessors of Mr. Sewall on all occasions, whenever we endeavored, in view of the unsettled state of affairs on the Samoan Islands, to obtain better guaranties for the protection of German subjects and their commercial interests.

BISMARCK'S COMPLAINT. The reports of our representatives in Apla of the last seven years repeatedly contain the complaint that their American colleagues show a tendency to interfere with our relations to the Samoan Government, and to instill the latter with distrust of Germany. The endeavors Germany made in the interest of the establishment of a lawful and orderly condition of affairs on those itlands have, without exception, met with the opposition of the American Consular representatives.

At the outbreak of hostilities among the natives in 1881, when the commander of His Imperial Majesty's ship Mowe, on the requisition of the German Consul at Apia, and in agreement with the Samoan Government, as well as with the municipal administration, occupied Apia in order to protect the foreign settlement, the American Consul, Dr. Dawson, protested against the measure, and persuaded the editor of an Apia paper, with whom he was connected by friendship, to publish a series of articles containing injurious statements against the German Vice Consul and the commander of His Imperial Majesty's ship Mowe.

The American Consul Canisius has been pointed out to us as the author of the two letters which Malietoa addressed to His Majesty the Emperor, under date of 18th and 25th of May, 1885. These letters contained complaints with regard to the imperial representative in Apia, the demand of his recall, and an insulting critique of German military measures. The successor of Dr. Canisius, Mr. Greenbaum, made a proposition to the German representative in everything encouraging the Chief Malimade a proposition to the German representa-tive in everything encouraging the Chief Mali-etoa, and his attitude toward Germany. A WICKED AMERICAN.

He arbitrarily announced, in a proclamation issued on the 14th of May, 1886, the American protectorate over the Samoan Islands, and hoisted as a sign thereof the American flag over the Samoan flag, a proceeding which was disavowed by his Government. The encroachments of the present representative of the ments of the present representative of the United States have, as you know, repeatedly given occasion to me to complain of his conduct to Mr. Bayard.

In view of the friendly relations which have continued undisturbed for more than a century between Germany and the United States, it is remarkable that on that remote realm of islands, where neither America nor Germany has any political interests to defend, we are exposed to the continued ill will of a series of American representatives. There are no local commercial rivalries which could explain such a fact. The American element has not aspired to a considerable commercial success on the Samoan Islands. The value of imports in Apia that have gone through the hands of American merchants amounts, according to the last statements of 1885, to 892,000, that of German imports to $292,000. In the exports the German merchants participated with $280,000, the American merchants participated with $280,000, the American merchants with only $31,000.

The only large American firm in Apia, Grevesmihl, Crawford & Co., is now under the management of two Germans, the American partner, who lives in San Francisco, having lately withdrawn. At the end of the last year the staff of the German firms in Apia consisted of 46 employes, that of the American firms only of 7. The German firms had established outside of Apia, in Ubola, and upon other islands of the Samoan group, 50, commercial stations and smaller trading places—the American firms not a single one.

GERMANY AHEAD. The German firms in Apia owned in 1885 21 ships with 1,519 tons for the trade in the South Sea, while the American firms had no vessels of their own. The subjects of the Empire had brought, by systematical establishment of plantations, 7,185 acres under cultivation plantations, 7,185 acres under cultivation, while American plantations do not exist, and only about 100 acres of the property owned by American subjects are cultivated. At the beginning of 1886 there were 81 Germans and Americans residing within the municipal district of Apla. Houses and property owned by German subjects represented, as shown by the list of assessments of municipal taxes, a value of $175,765; those of American citizens only a value of $32,000.

Germany has never made use of this mercantile preponderance of her subjects in Samoa to secure commercial privileges, as the United States have recently done in Hawaii by the ratification of the recently renewed reciprocity treaty of January 30, 1875. We have always maintained the principle of equality of rights of nations in Samoa, and never aspired to political advantages. Moreover, on the occasion of the latest action against Malietoa, the overthrow of whose Government was incompatible with our dignity, we have given, before the denosition of said chief, to both the English and American Governments the assurance, and American Governments the assurance, against which no doubt has been raised, that it is not our intention to change anything with regard to the relations of the treaty powers to BAYARD'S REPLY. In his dispatch to Mr. Pendleton, Secretary Bayard resisted the contention that the troubles in Samoa were due to the acts of American consuls, and presented counter charges against Germany's representatives. He reviews the various diplomatic negotiations, and says:

States entered into any designs of territorial aggrandizement or of political control in Samoa, they could have been accomplished, it is believed, with much satisfaction to the natives, and with little opposition from any of them, long prior to the date of either the British or the German treaty.

But another and widely different policy has guided the action of the United States in respect to the native communities in the Southguided the action of the United States in re-spect to the native communities in the South-ern Pacific, and it is not, I apprehend, claim-ing too much credit for this Government to ex-press the opinion that the example it exhibited in treating with Samea as an independent State led to a similar course and a similar acknowl-edgment of native independence in that island group by Germany and Great Britain.

Mr. Bayard also gives his version of the conference of the representatives of Germany, Great Britain and the United States in Washington in June 1887, and says that Germany agreed to make no new move in Samoa until an agreement was reached between all of the countries interested. This pledge has been violated. Mr. Bayard states that he has uniformly insisted that the independence of the islands must be maintained.

FRIENDS OF THE ORPHANS

Working Hard for the Continuation of the Schools- Sentiment of the G. A. R. FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. ?

HARRISBURG, January 29 .- The friends of the soldiers' or phans are moving. A sub-committee of the G. A. R. General Committee has the matter in charge on behalf of that organization and in the interest of the orphans. G. Harry Davis, of Philadelphia, and Prof. Wickersham, members of the committee, were here to-day. H. D. Potts and George Boyer, resident members of the committee, are keeping a vigilant eve on the progress of legislation relating to soldiers' orphans. These gentlemen to-day conferred together on the subject. The fifth member of the committee, J. B. Denworth, of Williamsort was not become of Williamsport, was not present.

The gentlemen voice Grand Army sents

ment in stating that the schools should be continued until 1895, but that there should be no further admissions to them. In this way the number of orphans in the school will be reduced by the date fixed to less than 100, none of whom will be under 14 years of age. In round numbers, there are now 1,500 children in the schools, who in 1890 will be thrust on the tender mercies of the world, many of them without parents or friends and with only the poor-nouse to receive them. The committee is opposed to divorcing the soldiers orphans schools from the educational department, and is in favor of cutting down expenses. Mr. Davis, speaking of the feeling agains the syndicate controlling a number of the schools, said it should not be permitted to work injustice to the children. "Why," he exclaimed, "to turn these children out in 1890 would be nothing less than another slaughter of the innocents."

The State encampment of the G. A. R., at its February meeting in Erie, is expected to take action in harmony with these expressions. A bill will probably be formulated there, the provisions of which will be reported to the House by the special committee of soldier members to be appointed. There is no question but that when it comes here so indorsed it will go through. It is stated that when the bill for the extension of the time of the soldiers orphans' schools. of the time of the soldiers orphans' schools, weighted with its provision for the appointment of a separate Superintendent, came up in the Education Committee, there was a strong effort to attach a proviso that the Superintendent shall not contract with a person who shall have a proprietary interest in two schools for the maintenance of

An Amendment to the Penalty Clause of the Soldier Bill Goes Through. FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] HARRISBURG, January 29.-The ac placing a penalty clause to the act to give preference of appointment or employment to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines came up on third reading, and was amended in committee of the whole so as to make it applicable to works in cities, counties and boroughs. Mr. Bean also offered an amendment making the penalty astrologers declare that the recent fire in the | not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, the money to go to the soldiers orphans' schools, and the penalty to apply only to officers convicted of the unlawful discharge of appointees and employes. Mr. Beau made a speech in advocacy of the amend-ment and the bill, in which he referred to the small amount of legislation enacted in favor of the soldier.

Mr. Skinner, of Fulton, oppo who has been appointed Chief Marshal of but desired it understood he did it as an old soldier, and not as a Democrat. He wanted no responsibility placed on the members of his political faith for anything he might say. Then he said a great many things against the bill, and thought that as the late war was not a Pennsylvania war the proper place to go for special favors to veterans was Washington.

Representative Baker, of Delaware, spoke in the same strain. He expressed himself as surprised that any body of men should ask for legislation. His friends at home had asked him to vote against the bill. He did not believe that those who wanted it had carefully studied its provisions. If an old soldier can lay claim to employment without fear of refusal, why not go a step further and provide that where a soldier is a candidate for office all others must give way.

There was much jugglery with statistics in the debate, and Mr. Skinner said the bill was in a line with the schoolhouse flag bill. He did not believe patriotism could be suc-cessfully legislated into anyone. Mr. Bean made an eloquent appeal for the old sol-diers, with such good effect that the House passed his amendment almost unanimously, passed his amendment almost una and the bill passed third reading.
